Encroachments endanger lives of pedestrians

Footpath vendors near ever-busy suburban bus stand force pedestrians to walk on road

Mysuru, Oct. 25 (SBD&KS)- Pedestrians are forced to walk on the ever-busy suburban bus stand road endangering their lives as the footpath is encroached by hawkers. Large scale encroachment of the footpath on the stretch in front of St. Bartholomew's Church near the bus stand by vendors selling various items has made the footpath congested and forcing pedestrians to walk on road.

This footpath is always busy as thousands of commuters go to the bus stand to catch buses to their destinations daily. Though the footpath is broad enough, a portion of it is already occupied by autorickshaws, as there is a pre-paid autorickshaw counter at the corner of the bus stand.

The autos line up around the Church and continues behind the bus stand also. With autos occupying a portion of the footpath and vendors occupying some more portion of the footpath, the walkway has become narrow and congested for pedestrians.

Desiring before deserving

The idiom If wishes were horses, beggars would ride, traced to a collection of Scottish proverbs about 1628, seems to mistakenly divert attention to horses and beggars, masking the message that if wishing could make things materialise, then even the most destitute people would have access to everything they wanted. Further, the veiled insult hurdled at beggars seems to be both undeserving and not called for, as it amounts to adding fuel to fire or branding a wound with a burning ember, drawing from a Kannada idiom. The expression, focussed on wishes, may be dissected leading to a fascinating debate on desiring before pondering over deserving what is sought, or much worse, without deserving, jut driven by passion. The child's desire to have a toffee or a toy and an adult's irrepressible desire to get rich, irrespective of the means, are different kettles of fish. More importantly, while the child's delight is unalloyed, the adult's desire, particularly to acquire wealth or power with authority often sees no end. Chasing name and fame undeservedly marks the phenomenon of desiring with pitfalls, not to forget loss of face in society.

Thanks to cut-throat competition amidst limited and steadily shrinking opportunities at different stages in life, starting from schooling upto landing a job, the desire to cross the hurdles by hook or crook prompts one to invoke the caution sounded by the wise that unbridled desire is the root cause of sadness, depression in case of disappointment and finally tendency to commit suicide.

While the economic health of a country is rated by estimating many parameters such as gross domestic product, index of industrial production, current account deficit, unemployment, life expectancy and so on, rating the country's level of happiness could be based on the extent of satisfaction on the part of the diaspora. The words of wisdom not to stretch desires beyond one's means to meet the basic needs of life don't have many takers in the land. The political class figuring in the disturbing reports being published now-a-days by dailies of all hues and blared on the small screen portray the consequences of chasing desires by unethical and unlawful means, which is engaging the attention of public.

Without meaning to demonise desire, the current scenario across the country of the well-marked sections of society hell bent on enjoying rights of all kinds, forgetting the sweat and toil to earn those rights, unmindful of the responsibilities is the undoing of the land's masses. "First deserve and then desire" is the prescription of the wise.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Prime Minister Narendra Modi proposed that a new building be built to replace the old Parliament building . According to him, a brand new structure — or a substantially upgraded old one — should be ready by 2022, in time to celebrate 75 years of Indian Independence, something that would proclaim the country's eminent position as the world's largest Democracy. The PM's statement follows in the wake of Lok Sabha Speaker Sumitra Mahajan's assertion that the 90-year-old Lutyens and Baker designed structure can no longer support added demands for space, security and media. She even proposed possible sites for the new building within the Parliament complex. The idea that the current colonial building has done its time seems misguided and entirely out of sync with the reality of architectural possibilities. The rush to make something afresh springs most likely from an archaic Indian self-absorption with being second rate, and trusting any modern-looking glass façade that may quell that cultural inadequacy. If history is any guide, some of the world's iconic public buildings make amply clear the longevity granted to them. — Gautam Bhatia in Sunday Times of India

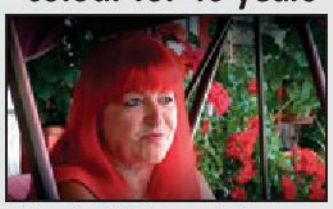
Woman surrounds herself with red colour for 40 years



Bosnia: A 67-year-old woman from Breze, a small town in Bosnia, has been surrounding herself with the color red ever since she was 18-years-old. She even got married in a red gown and attending funerals in red clothing.

Zorica Rebernik, a retired school teacher, lives in a bright red house filled with red furniture, eats from red plates, drinks from red glasses and sleeps on red bed sheets. All the clothes in her wardrobe are red and she even dyes her hair red. The only non-red appliance in Zorica's home is a white heater, which she only agreed to after her husband, Zoran, insisted. She has been surrounding herself with the color red for the last four decades of her life and today she is somewhat of a local celebrity because of it. Everyone knows her, and some even offer her red things as gifts, the woman said.

Hitmen convicted after subcontracting deal to others

Beijing: A Chinese businessman and five would-be hitmen were recently issued prison sentences after the former reportedly hired one of the assassins to take out one of his competitors only to have the contact passed along to other hitmen until the fee got so small the last of them decided it wasn't worth the trouble.

Tan Youhui, a real estate company owner in Nanning, China, decided to hire a hitman to eliminate a local competitor, surnamed Wei. The businessman was willing to pay a total of 2 million ($282,000) to have Wei taken out and got Xi Guangan to get the job done. Xi decided that it was easier to just subcontract the job to someone else and pay them half the money. He passed the job over to another man named Mo Tianxiang along with 1 million yuan ($141,000). The job was passed on to others untill the amount got small.

Ling, the final of the five so-called hitmen, met Wei at a coffee shop and tried to convince him to fake his own death. The businessman thought to go to the cops instead. Ling was arrested, and he spilled the beans.

Ropeway can de-congest traffic on Chamundi Hill: Minister

Mysuru, Oct. 25 (RK&DM)- District Minister V. Somanna has observed that a ropeway can de-congest vehicular traffic on Chamundi Hill.

Speaking to presspersons after inspecting the spot where landslide occurred at a stretch of Chamundi Hill road between View Point and Nandi Statue atop the hill yesterday, Somanna said that the traffic on the hill road is increasing by the day which has resulted in traffic congestion and some urgent measures such as a ropeway was needed to de-congest the traffic.

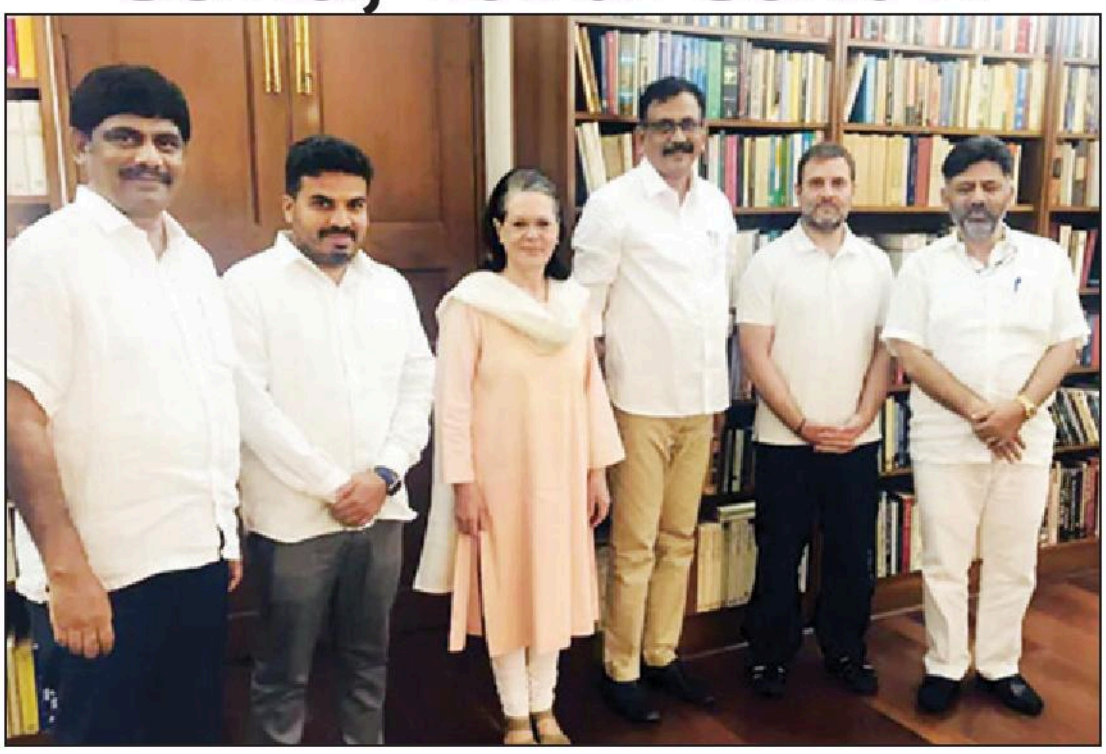
Referring to ropeways at Palani and Haridwar, Somanna said that the ropeways there were laid using the most advanced technology taking into account all safety requirements.

He suggested that a ropeway may be a solution here too and added that the ropeway was a costly affair and required the best available technology.

District Minister V. Somanna inspecting the road repair works between View Point and Nandi Statue atop Chamundi Hill yesterday along with officials concerned.

Calling for the use of modern technology for building stronger concrete retaining walls, the Minister directed the officials to complete the task of re-constructing the collapsed retaining wall in a fortnight while also maintaining quality in the works.

D.K. Shivakumar calls on Sonia, Rahul Gandhi



New Delhi, Oct. 25 - A day after his release from Tihar Jail, former Minister and senior Congress leader from Karnataka D.K. Shivakumar met All India Congress Committee (AICC) Interim President Sonia Gandhi and former President Rahul Gandhi, yesterday. Shivakumar's younger brother and MP D.K. Suresh accompanied him.

It may be recalled that Sonia Gandhi and MP Ambika Soni had met Shivakumar, the trouble- shooter for the Congress party in Karnataka, at Tihar Jail on Oct. 23.

Earlier in the day, Shivakumar had met AICC General Secretary K.C. Venugopal at the Congress Office and discussed the circumstances under which he was arrested by the Enforcement Directorate on Sept. 3.

Shivakumar, who was arrested last month on charges of tax evasion and indulging in hawala transactions amounting to crores of rupees, was granted bail by the Delhi High Court on a bond of Rs. 25 lakh plus two sureties on Oct. 23. However, he was asked to not influence witnesses or leave the country without the Court's permission.

The Congress leader is expected to hold meetings with his advocates to discuss the further course of action before he returns to Bengaluru.

Chidambaram's ED custody extended till Oct. 30

Chidambaram

New Delhi, Oct. 25 - The Special CBI Court yesterday extended the Enforcement Directorate's (ED) custody of former Union Minister P. Chidambaram in the INX Media case till Oct. 30. The investigating agency had sought an extension of Chidambaram's custody as his 7-day custody ended yesterday.

Special Judge Ajay Kumar Kuhar allowed the ED to quiz Chidambaram and said that he be taken to AIIMS immediately in case of any medical complication. The Court said that the other conditions of his custody will be the same, including on providing him home-cooked food.

Chidambaram, who spent a fortnight in Police custody after his arrest, was thereafter remanded to Judicial custody. His plea for regular bail was rejected by Special CBI Court. Later, the Delhi HC had also denied him bail. He was arrested by ED on Oct. 16 after he was granted regular bail in CBI case by Apex Court.

VOICE OF THE READER

Deplorable condition of KRS Road

Sir,

It is shocking to see the deplorable condition of KRS Road. Some stretch of the road is bad and some stretch very bad.

I am unable to fathom the irresponsible and lethargic attitude of the engineers and the officers concerned in letting one of the most travelled road of Mysuru like this, especially during Dasara time.

The tourists will never forget the bumpy, back-breaking ride they experience on KRS road. At least before Dasara the authorities could have provided some temporary road filling to offer a better drive for the tourists travelling from Mysuru to Brindavan Gardens.

The main curse in execution of public works at the cost of tax-payers money is the lack of 'accountability'. Since there is no accountability, completion of projects prolong. Having received their loot, the authorities concerned do not insist on quality works or timely completion of the projects. Most of the projects go beyond the deadline and the contractors in connivance with the bureaucrats demand for escalation costs for the delayed projects.

Every contractor has to shell down a "cut" and because of this 'cut' culture, quality and timely execution of the work suffers.

Chamundi Hill in Peril ?

With a little extra rain even our rock solid Chamundi Hill seems to be in some amount of danger going by the fairly disturbing landslide that occurred there three days ago. Since the rain that we have experienced in and around our city has not been above average, I feel it is not the quantum of rain that has hurt the hill but the way we have been managing the flow of rainwater which is at fault.

I say this because I regularly measure the rain we receive in my home rain gauge which says that till today morning we have received nearly eighty centimetres of rain this year which cannot be called an excess. If you drive up the hill you will notice that along all the roads there are rainwater drains along their inner side which is the way it should be. In addition to this, at periodic intervals there are drains under the road that convey the rainwater from these drains to the far side so that it can flow away along the hillside.

It is the blockage of these passages with dead leaves, sand and even trash over the years that is now hampering free drainage of rainwater which is weakening the subsoil on which the hill roads are perched. If periodic attention is paid to keeping these underground passages clean, I think we will not see any landslides on the hill which thankfully is otherwise largely composed of very stable rock.

The barricades and the garden beyond atop Chamundi Hill.

Incidentally, while talking of the Chamundi Hill I would like to make a mention of a change which has been made there by our authorities which according to me qualifies to be called an act bordering on vandalism. There used to be a large semi-circular lay-by with a couple of stone benches half way up the hill road where it bifurcates into the temple road and the Nandi road. This place was the spot where most visitors could stop their cars without obstructing traffic and get down to enjoy the breathtaking view of the sprawling city below. At nights, especially on the days when the Mysore Palace was lit, this would seem like a view of fairyland itself !

Now, for some strange reason this View Point which had remained unmolested over the ages, has been barricaded and converted into some kind of garden which seems very unwelcome there. I cannot help feeling that this is part of a conspiracy between someone in power and the agency that has been entrusted to install and operate the binoculars close to this spot. This may be a ploy to increase the footfalls and revenue at the binoculars by diverting the tourists who are naturally eager to enjoy the view !

A signboard atop Chamundi Hill, whatever it is supposed to mean !

Whatever the reason for this new arrangement, it would be better if it is immediately undone and the privilege granted by our Maharajas to the common people is restored back to them. Yes, this was indeed a gift from our Maharajas to visitors to the hill created very thoughtfully, when they laid roads across the hill. Incidentally, there are two other places where such alcoves exist. One is midway along the road that runs behind the hill joining the Nanjangud Road and another where the road from the Nandi joins the Nanjangud Road. They both have a couple of narrow stone benches very quaintly built as recesses in the stone walls themselves! Since both these lie on stretches of road on which there is practically no traffic, they have been serving our family as some of our favourite picnic spots and some of my fondest childhood memories are intertwined with them!

A very touching gift !

Two days ago I had been invited as a guest speaker at a joint meeting of three Rotary Clubs in the city. The topic of my talk was 'The Joys and Sorrows of being a Doctor' which also happens to be the favourite topic of my own recollections in my moments of solitude !

This is so because I don't think there is anyone out there who has struggled as much as I have just to enter Medical College, let alone to become a doctor. This was because I was buffeted by one wave after another of adverse circumstances that seemed tailor-made to prevent me from donning the white coat

'Lillies' by Sudheer Acharya.

! But thankfully they are all now a thing of the distant past and since I went on to become a doctor and a fairly successful one too, going by my own sense of satisfaction, I can now look back upon those difficult times too with a sense of achievement and happiness.

After my talk, when it was the time to receive the customary memento, I was happy that I was given a beautiful plaque depicting a pair of lilies. But when I examined it closely I discovered that what I had received was in fact an original watercolour painting. And, when I was told that it had been done by Sudheer Acharya, a Rotarian himself, I was overwhelmed !

Sudheer is a young hotelier in our city and he paints under the brush-name of Kalicharan. He seems to be really gifted going by the fact that he has done an exceedingly good job of bringing out even the very fine highlights in his work which is not very easy while working with watercolours which is a difficult medium to master.

I convey my happiness to him and his fellow Rotarians for giving me a gift that my family is going to cherish for all time to come and I hope we Mysureans get to see more of Sudheer's artwork very soon in an exhibition that the Rotarians themselves can arrange !

Protests galore in City

Mysuru, Oct. 25 (RKB&VNS)- The city witnessed a series of protests by various organisations for different reasons this morning.

Akhila Bharata Veerashaiva Mahasabha: Nearly 1,000 members of Akhila Bharata Veerashaiva Mahasabha held a silent protest march this morning seeking the arrest of journalist Vishweshwar Bhat for his alleged defamatory comments against Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji in one of his columns.

The protest march began from Gun House Circle, opposite JSS Mahavidyapeeta with former MLCs Thontadarya and K.R. Mallikarjunappa garlanding the statue of Basaveshwara. The march passed through Chamaraja Double Road and JLB Road before culminating at the Deputy Commissioner's office where they submitted a memorandum. The protestors said that the comments against Seer had hurt the sentiments of Veerashaiva community.

Nayaka Yuva Sena condemns lathicharge: The members of Nayaka Yuva Sena protested in front of Deputy Commissioner's Office this morning against Police lathicharge during Valmiki Jayanti celebrations in Nanjangud on Oct. 13.

They shouted slogans against Nanjangud taluk administration and the district Police. Yuva Sene accused the Police Department of registering false cases against innocent youths of the community and alleged that Police, who failed to provide proper security for the celebrations were responsible for the incident. Seeking the quashing of cases booked against the youths, Yuva Sene also sought the intervention of District Administration and urged to take action against those responsible for the incident.

Tobacco growers demand compensation: In another protest, tobacco growers under the banner of Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha and Hasiru Sene held a protest in front of DC's Office seeking compensation and a bailout package.

The protesters, who gathered in front of Babu Jagjivan Ram Circle, opposite City Railway Station, held a protest march till DC's Office shouting slogans against both State and Central Governments and Tobacco Board. Farmers are demanding Central Government to pay Rs. 200 per kg of tobacco bought by the Board along with Rs. 1,750 (without tax) per kg for single barrel tobacco. They have also demanded that the card holders be allowed to sell tobacco without being levied tax.

They also demanded Rs. 10 lakh compensation per 13x13 single barrel and Rs. 20 lakh for 16x16 double barrel for those farmers who have voluntarily written to Tobacco Board their decision to stop growing the crop, among others.

Endangering pedestrians

path is occupied by autos and vendors, only about three to four feet of the footpath is free for pedestrians. This hindrance has become a bane to women, children and senior citizens who are now risking their lives by walking on the busy Bengaluru-Nilgiri road.

Vendors use tables and chairs to display items such as fruits, flowers, watches, clothes, footwear, belts, wallets, purses, sun glasses, plastic items, caps, hats and food items. They also install large umbrellas and even put up plastic and tarpaulin sheets above to protect them and their items from sun and rain which also adds to the woes of pedestrians.

This footpath is frequented by thousands of people who alight at the bus stand to go towards Sangam Theatre, Clock Tower, Town Hall, City Bus Stand, Devaraja Market, Ashoka Road, K.T. Street, Gandhi Square, Sayyaji Rao Road and surrounding places. As the footpath is encroached, they are not bothered about the problems being faced by the pedestrians as it is the duty of the civic authorities to clear footpaths for pedestrians. The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) authorities should take steps to clear the footpath meant for pedestrians and also take steps to provide alternate place for the vendors to conduct their business.

City Top Cop, Mayor react

The problems faced by pedestrians have come to our notice and we have also observed it. Footpath is meant for pedestrians and its encroachment is leading to people walking on roads which has caused accidents. If MCC comes forward to clear the encroachments, we will provide security to them.

— K.T. Balakrishna, City Police Commissioner

We have discussed about this issue in the Council Meeting following numerous complaints from the public. We will bring this to the notice of the District Minister and take action to clear the footpath.

— Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath

Opposing Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership

Farmers block Mysuru-Najangud Highway, taken into preventive custody

Mysuru, Oct. 25 (RKB&VNS)- About 45 members of Karnataka State Sugarcane Growers Association were taken into preventive custody by City Police while they tried to block Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway near the Ring Road junction, here this morning. They were taken into custody as they continued to protest despite Police asking them to vacate the place.

The farmers protested against Central Government's decision to enter Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) agreement, a proposed free trade agreement between the ten Member-Countries of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and its six FTA (Free Trade Agreement) partners.

Stating that RCEP would be detrimental to farmers as the agriculture and food sectors would be badly hit, the farmers feared that developed countries would dump their excess agri produce in India under zero import duty concept and added that dairy sector too would be hit hard.

They urged the Union Government to keep away agriculture and food sector from the ambit of any free trade concept.

Meanwhile, over 400 farmers under the aegis of Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRRS) and Hasiru Sene along with a few cattle took out a protest march opposing RCEP from Ramaswamy Circle to DC office yesterday. The farmers held placards with punching messages saying No to milk, sugar, silk, food grains and other items from abroad.

Writer Devanur Mahadeva, KRRS State President Badagalapura Nagendra led the protest.

Leopard kills 10 sheep in Nagamangala taluk

Mandya, Oct. 25 (Nagaiah&KS) - A leopardess and her cubs that entered a shed where sheep were housed, have killed ten sheep and have taken away two of them.

The incident took place at the sheep shed belonging to Suresh near Kabbalamma Temple in Gowri Koppal village, Devalapura Hobli in Nagamagala taluk of Mandya district yesterday night.

Villagers said that the feline and cubs entered the shed at about 9 pm and killed 10 sheep besides stating that the big wild cat took away two sheep leaving behind the carcass of eight sheep. They alleged that there is a group of leopards at Muddu Linganakoppaltittu and Muthurayanatittu Forests in the surrounding of the village which are being spotted frequently since many months.

The leopards enter the village and kill the livestock and have also caused a sense of fear among them, they alleged.

Meanwhile, Forest Department officials, who visited the village, conducted inspection and assured the sheep owner of getting the benefits given by the Government besides assuring villagers of trapping the leopards.

MLAs' disqualification case: SC resumes hearing

New Delhi, Oct.25 - The Supreme Court this morning resumed the hearing on the petitions filed by disqualified Karnataka MLAs, who have questioned their ouster by former Assembly Speaker K.R. Ramesh Kumar.

Soon after the hearing began, Senior Counsel Kapil Sibal, who appeared for the then Assembly Speaker, presented a strong case defending the disqualification of the legislators, arguing that they had grossly violated the House rules while quitting their Assembly seats. Senior advocate Devadutt Kamat is representing the Congress party while another Senior Counsel Rajiv Dhavan is arguing on behalf of the JD(S) Party, of which three legislators were disqualified.

Yesterday, a three-member SC Bench presided over by Justice N.V. Ramana had adjourned the hearing for today after the current Karnataka Assembly Speaker told the Court that he was ready to reconsider the matter related to the resignation and disqualification of 17 MLAs.

District Minister calls for transparent distribution of relief money

Mysuru, Oct.25 (RK&DM)- With Mysuru being one of the flood affected districts in the region, District Minister V. Somanna on Thursday directed officials to distribute flood relief money to the affected victims in a transparent manner.

Speaking at a meeting to discuss flood relief works and crop loss in the district at the ZP Hall here yesterday, Somanna asked the officials to identify the genuine flood victims and provide them relief from the released funds, as per the revised guidelines of the Government.

After receiving inputs from the Tahsildars and Taluk Panchayat Executive Officers on crop loss and flood damages, the Minister instructed them to build new homes wherever the houses are fully damaged.

The officials told the Minister that 101.35 acres of crop were destroyed and 395 houses in the district collapsed due to heavy rains in October, with Mysuru taluk alone recording a crop loss of 13 acres and destruction of 115 houses. Also one person and 14 cattle lost their lives in the floods. The officials also said that Rs. 42.5 lakh has been distributed as relief to flood affected and an additional Rs.1.2 crore has been sought from the Government to meet compensation demands.

Asking the Agriculture, Revenue and Horticulture Department officials to visit all flood affected areas in order to get accurate statistics on the extent of flood damages and crop loss, Somanna asked them to finalise the list the victims and provide them relief as per the guidance of local Legislators.

Provide info on dilapidated Schools and Anganwadis

Somanna instructed DDPI Panduranga to provide complete information on all dilapidated Schools and Anganwadis in the district by Nov.1.

Pointing out that the State Cabinet has agreed to release Rs.500 crore for repair and renovation of Government schools in the State, he asked Panduranga to prepare an estimate and submit an action plan to the Government in this regard.

The DDPI said that 385 Government Schools and 254 Anganwadis in the district were in poor shape and required repairs, to which the Minister asked to visit all such Schools to know about the condition of buildings there.

Ring Road expansion

Stressing on the need for expansion of Ring Road, Somanna said that all the layouts should be handed over to MCC for upkeep and maintenance. He asked the MCC and MUDA Commissioners to hold a meeting in this regard.

MLAs L. Nagendra, Anil Chikkamadu, Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah, B. Harshavardhan, M. Ashwin Kumar, ZP CEO K. Jyothi, Additional DC B.R. Poornima, City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, SP C.B. Ryshyanth, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde, MUDA Commissioner P.S. Kantharaj and other officials were present at the meeting.

UN Flag flies atop Deputy Commissioner's Office

Mysuru, Oct.25- As part of United Nations (UN) Foundation Day, the UN Flag was hoisted alongside the National Flag atop the Deputy Commissioner's Office here yesterday.

The State Government, based on a directive from the Union Government, had issued a circular to all the DCs asking them to hoist the UN Flag to mark the UN Foundation Day on Oct.24, atop all the DC Offices.

Accordingly, the blue coloured UN Flag with a white logo was hoisted alongside the Tri-Colour atop the DC's Office here and the Flag was brought down before sunset yesterday.

BJP State Chief asks workers to strengthen Party at Booth-level

Mysuru, Oct.25 (YDS&DM)- Maintaining that all hard-working Party workers will be suitably rewarded, State BJP Chief Nalin Kumar Kateel asked them to focus on strengthening the Party at the Booth-level as it is vital for the Party to get a strong foothold.

Addressing a meeting of Party workers at the BJP Office in Chamarajapuram here yesterday, Kateel said that the resignation of some Congress and JD(S) legislators helped BJP to form Government in the State and as such these legislators cannot be ignored.

Admitting that Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa was under some pressure in the nominations to Boards and Corporations, he said that no individual is above the Party and the leaders and workers must understand this.

Asserting that the BJP would gain a massive majority in the next Assembly polls, Kateel assured the loyal party workers of considering them in the nomination to Boards and Corporations the next time.

Stating that the Party is emerging victorious everywhere, thanks to the efforts of senior leaders, he said that National BJP Chief Amit Shah has given some instructions on the strengthening of the party at the ground-level which needs to be followed.

Announcing that the BJP Central leadership has stipulated an age limit of 40-45 years for Mandal President, he said that the best performers will be elevated to the district-level and those at the district-level to State-level.

Underlining the need for ending caste politics, he said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi was working towards ending caste, vote-bank and goonda politics in the country.

Claiming that the upcoming by-polls was crucial for BJP Government, he called upon the Party workers to ensure the victory of the BJP candidate in Hunsur.

District BJP President M. Shivanna said that former MP C.H. Vijayashankar is likely to return to the partyfold and his re-entry will weaken Opposition leader Siddharamaiah's hold in Mysuru region.

MLAs S.A. Ramdas and L. Nagendra, City BJP President B.H. Manjunath, former MLCs Thontadarya, Siddaraju and C. Ramesh, leaders M.V. Ravishankar, M. Appanna and others were present at the meeting.

Hyderabad, Oct. 25 (UNI)- Hyderabad Football Club (HFC), which is making its debut in the sixth season of the Indian Super League (ISL), has found a new stakeholder in the popular actor, businessman and sports enthusiast Rana Daggubati along with Varun Tripuraneni and Vijay Madduri.

Not only a sports enthusiast but also the brand ambassador for a premier Kabbadi league, Rana is chuffed to be part of the history in the making, HFC said in a statement here yesterday.

"Hyderabad has a great legacy with the sport. This team, therefore, is a chance to rekindle that legacy," Rana said.

Elaborating on the team, he said "I am confidently counting on Kamaljit and his team to make a mark in our very maiden season. The team proved its mettle in the preliminary camps in Chennai and Goa. HFC aced all of the seven friendly matches, remaining undefeated.

The tournament that kick-started on Oct 20, 2019, will go on until March 2020. Each team will play a minimum of 18 matches in the run-up for the coveted ISL trophy.

Rohit to lead India against Bangladesh in T20s

Mumbai, Oct. 25 (UNI)- Indian opener Rohit Sharma will lead the team for the upcoming three-match T20I home series against Bangladesh, while regular captain Virat Kohli has been rested for the series.

The All-India Senior Selection Committee also announced the Test squad for the two-match series against the same opposition. In the shorter format of the game, Kerala wicket-keeper and batsman Sanju Samson and leg-break bowler Yuzvendra Chahal returned to the squad, while Mumbai-based all-rounder Shivam Dube got his maiden call-up.

The selection committee also named an unchanged squad for longer format of the game. Shahbaz Nadeem, who was roped in place of Chinaman Kuldeep Yadav to play the final Test against South Africa in Ranchi, was left out. It was Jharkhand spinner's debut match.

According to Prasad, injured pacer Jasprit Bumrah will take more time to make a comeback in the team, while medium-pacer Bhuvneshwar Kumar may return to the team in the next series against West Indies. Meanwhile, former captain M.S. Dhoni continues to remain unavailable for the third series in a row. Brijesh Patel is new IPL Chairman

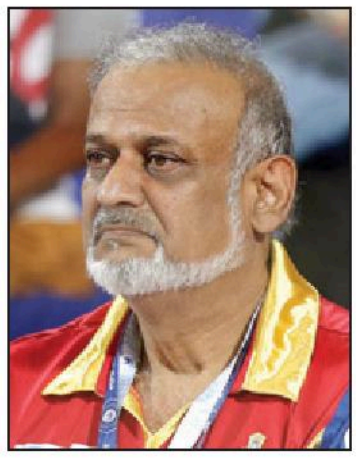
It was a sheer slip between the cup and the lip for Brijesh Patel, who was all set to become the 39th President of the BCCI. Right out of the blue former Indian skipper Sourav Ganguly emerged and made a garrison finish to win the most coveted post in the BCCI.

Nevertheless, it is not the be all and end all for Brijesh Patel as assuming the post of IPL Chairman is a mere formality. However, IPL Chairman's post is largely a nominal one and therefore much weaker than the BCCI President. IPL which changed the way cricket is played, transforming the lives of all the stakeholders and making BCCI the richest body in the world cricket, has often been prone to backlash from all quarters.



The first IPL President and the mastermind Lalit Modi, who conceived the idea of IPL, was sacked for financial irregularities. Rajiv Shukla, who then assumed the charge resigned amidst the match fixing/ spot fixing controversies that plagued the IPL.

So it is not going to be a cakewalk for Brijesh Patel either. However, since he has been the Secretary of KSCA and has been a key catalyst for the game in Karnataka, fortunes may well work towards his favour. Brand IPL, having been valued at Rs. 47,500 crore in 2019 and having completed 12 successful seasons so far had very few parallels. But with the advent of The Hundred – A professional 100-Ball Cricket tournament in England and Wales run by the England Cricket Board commencing July 2020 and T10 - A 10-over a side spanning 90 minutes gaining momentum, Brijesh Patel as a humongous task at hand and a responsibility to live up to his reputation.

MCC Comr. assures regular water supply by year-end to areas coming under N.R. Assembly segment

Gurudatta Hegde

Mysuru, Oct. 25 (RKB&DM) - A day after he came under severe attack from Corporators at the MCC General Council meeting on Tuesday for failing to address drinking water woes, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde on Wednesday said that measures will be taken to supply regular drinking water to all MCC wards coming under N.R. Assembly segment.

Speaking at a programme organised at Abdul Nazir Sab State Administrative Training Institute here recently to discuss drinking water issues in city recently, Gurudatta Hegde directed the officials to take immediate measures for resolving the water crisis in N.R. Assembly segment.

Pointing out that a meeting was held over four years ago to sort out drinking water woes in N.R. Assembly segment, he said that the Assembly Constituency needs 90 MLD (Million Litres a Day) of water and presently only 60 MLD of water is being supplied, which had resulted in the problem.

Stating that measures will be taken to enhance the capacity of water pumps at Melapura and Rammanahalli Pumping Stations from where water is supplied to the Constituency, the MCC Commissioner said that two more pumps of higher capacity will be installed at the stations to augment water supply. He further said that once this is done, 100 MLD of water will be pumped, which will be a solution to the drinking water woes not only of N.R. Assembly segment, but that of the entire city.

At the programme, the MCC officials admitted that there were disruptions in K.R. and Chamaraja Assembly segments too and this was because of erratic power supply. However, necessary measures have been taken to meet the water demand, they said and added that water supply would be disrupted if there is power problem.

"The residents are also questioning us on water supply only during the night and no water during the day, which has made us uncomfortable. Also the residents are demanding answers on why there is water crisis when Cauvery and Kabini rivers are flowing close-by,", the Corporators pointed out and took the officials to task for failing to address the issue in an appropriate manner.

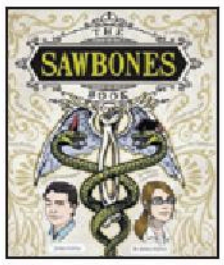
WORD OF THE DAY

Sawbones

Pronunciation: SAW-bohnz.



Meaning: Slang: physician, surgeon.

Origin: Sawbones cut its first literary tooth in Charles Dickens's 1837 novel The Pickwick Papers, when Sam Weller says to Mr. Pickwick, "Don't you know what a sawbones is, sir? ... I thought everybody know'd as a sawbones was a surgeon." An evocative term that calls to mind the saws that 19th-century surgeons used to perform amputations, sawbones quickly became an established member of the English language, employed by such authors as H. G. Wells, Mark Twain, and Robert Louis Stevenson. Mercifully, medical technology has improved dramatically since then (the surgical saws used in procedures today are a far cry from the primitive tools of yesteryear), but the word sawbones is still used, often in a humorous context.

Example: "Anyway, his relatives ... reminded him that it's hard to shine shoes without a heartbeat. So he went back to his sawbones to talk about the pacemaker." — Phil Luciano

THE ODD WORD

Sackbut

Early wind instrument resembling the trombone.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Salad days

Meaning: The days of one's youthful inexperience.

Origin: From Shakespeare's Anthony and Cleopatra, 1606:
CLEOPATRA: My salad days,
When I was green in judgment: cold in blood,
To say as I said then! But, come, away;
Get me ink and paper:
He shall have every day a several greeting,
Or I'll unpeople Egypt.

'Salad days' is used these days to refer to the days of carefree innocence and pleasure of our youth. It has also been used to refer to the time of material affluence in our more mature years, when the pressures of life have begun to ease - something akin to 'the golden years'. Shakespeare meant the former, and the clue is in the colour. While he used green in other contexts to signify jealousy - 'the green-eyed monster' in Othello and, in Love's Labours Lost "Green indeed is the colour of lovers", it is used here to mean immature. The green of salad leaves, which are invariably short-lived, is an obvious allusion to youthfulness. Green is also used in other expressions to mean unready for use, for example, 'green (unripe) corn', 'green (unseasoned) timber and 'greenhorn' (an inexperienced recruit).

QUOTE BOX

It takes four men to dress a salad: a wise man for the salt, a madman for the pepper, a miser for the vinegar, and a spendthrift for the oil. — Anonymous

CRYPTOQUIP

The Cryptoquip is a substitution cipher in which one letter stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words and words using an apostrophe give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is by trial and error.
